from Chap. I
As we finish our
nth grade semester
can see all the changes
it have taken place in our lives. I don't think I ever had more fun in my life
we have had together. I am sincerely hope that our friendship will never cease, and I have been a great pal of yours even in the years to come it will become even deeper. I know you have the ability to overcome all sticks and I will be working and I must be true to Cyndia. cause I will be teaching above all you as I am not around I will really miss you on at the Marlborough. Don't let Singer + Sue + all the rest of your admirers know I am looking forward to next semester and the great p.s. I have been touched. I am going to have to do something which I have dreaded. That is to say that I really think you are going to be a terrific miles. I know before you leave you will have broken many a record. So, remember, Julian don't disappoint me. I know you won't.

d e d i c a t i o n

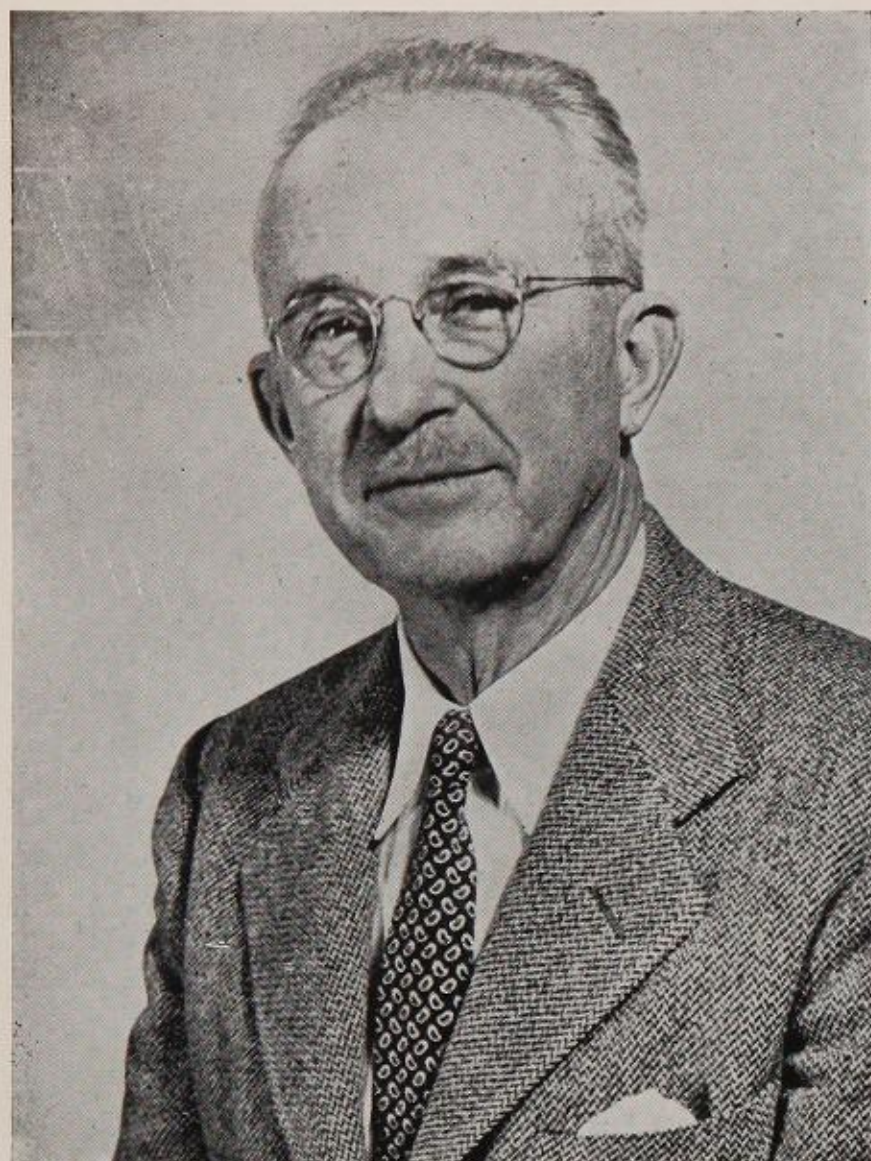

to the world of the future
to the men and women of our nation who gave their lives
that there might be a future—
to those of us who are going to rebuild from the ashes that are left—
we dedicate

Chieftain of 1945

a d m i n i s t r a t i o n

RALPH D. WADSWORTH
Principal

The war years of 1942 to 1945 saw many drastic changes come to University high school. Carefree activities which have marked campus life in former years took on a serious import. With purpose and zest, boys and girls plunged into the war effort. One by one, classmates and teachers began to leave for the armed services. Yet through the guidance of administration and faculty, University has managed to retain much of the warmth and friendship of past years. With practiced adeptness, the administration handled the problems of acceleration, part-time programs for war workers, victory classes, air-raid drills, civilian defense, curtailed teaching and maintenance staff, and the rest. As always, the hand of friendship and the word of good advice guided students in the old friendly way. Mr. Wadsworth's fine character and personal interest have more than once befriended a new student or helped a boy to select a useful branch of the armed forces. Both vice-principals, the counselor and the registrar have worked with individual students to make their high school years happy and successful through adjustment to rules and a wise selection of classes. The constant stream of returning University servicemen and women, former students, bears witness to the fact that University high school retains the place it wins in the hearts of all who enter here. After Vice-Principal Raymond Casey joined the Seabees, and his successor, Mr. Mann, became principal at Jordan, Mr. Ramey was advanced to the post of vice-principal. Mrs. Brooks, former home economics teacher, became counselor when Dr. Lombardi left to take a vice-principalship at San Pedro. Before the Allied armies reduced the threat of enemy attack on the west coast, University high school was organized for full protection against any enemy action. Black-out preparations were made; many students became junior air raid wardens and took civilian defense posts wherever they were able. Throughout the war-crisis years of 1942 to 1944, the student body, under faculty supervision, did everything possible to aid the war effort. Red Cross drives, the buying of War Bonds and Stamps, paper drives, all were taken in stride and put over with great success by the student body.

Far over the battle fronts, the Warrior has ranged, carrying news of alumni and school to ex-University students and teachers now serving Uncle Sam. In September of 1944 Miss Katharine Reed succeeded Mrs. Force, who was the sponsor of the newspaper for twelve years. Formerly a Chieftain adviser in '41 and '42, Miss Reed still trains students to pass English A exams. The fall of '43 saw Mr. Elmer King in charge of the printing department. He succeeded James Hallock, snowy-haired favorite of long standing. Mr. King met the war-emergency by establishing a girls' printing class which became unusually popular. In the spring of '45 he was even persuaded to sponsor one of the numerous Tri-Y's. That the Warrior, which has won seven state and national awards, retained its popularity is testified by the largest subscription list in the paper's history. This year and last, photographs by Ralph Hart, Jim Hervey, Ted Lantheaume, and Tom Horning have enlivened its pages. The students who for the past year have served in the positions of editors on the Warrior are: Stuart Millar and Dare Dobson, Editors-in-Chief; Frank Farner and Leigh Gilbert, Commissioners of Publications; Susie Glaser, features; Barbara Waters and Stuart Ormonde, news; Wallace Merryman, Jack Stuckeman, and Denny Murphy, sports; Felicity Brown, exchanges.

Trying to get into one half-size year book everything that happened in three years has put the Chieftain staff to a severe strain, particularly as it was not until mid-year that the Commissioners discovered that the OPA would permit the luxury of a school annual. With an energetic Commissioner of Publications, Frank Farner, sparking the group, the staff consists of: Myron Axelrod, Art Editor; Anne Lossieff, assistant; Patsy Rucker, G.A.A.; Judy Justman, fine arts; John Oien, student body; Wallace Merryman, sports, with Don Michael assisting. Head of the photography department is Tom Horning, Ralph Hart, Jim Hervey, and Ted Lantheaume contributing. Most of the sports pictures were taken by Herbert Carleton, S'44. Outstanding members of the art staff are Betty Townsend, Jackie Ritchie, Mary Eldredge, Bill Ulman, Patty Murphy, Jack Dean, and Betty Lou Richardson. Other members of the editorial staff are Helen Eachus, John Droeger, and John Fagin. Janet Martin and Mrs. DeJarnatt pinch-hit as typists before the deadline. Miss Virginia Lowers is faculty advisor with Mrs. Heisig in charge of the art work. Dorothy Jirsa, student teacher, assisted. Supervision of the sports department was given by Mr. Hesslein, B coach, Mrs. Jarvis lent trained photographers, while information about service men was given by Helen and Esther Colnon.

girls' glee club — spring 1945

The music department, under Mrs. Provan, Mrs. Heaton, and Mr. Wing, has had great goals this year and has managed to reach them successfully. For the first time, three Los Angeles City schools took part in the Congressional Church's Bach Festival. University was one of those schools honored by an invitation to participate in this festival which lasts for four days and which has many notables performing. A complete Bach Cantata was beautifully sung by the University group. Mrs. Provan, who has just completed her first year at University, teaches girls' glee, mixed chorus, and A Cappella. The orchestra and band are under Mr. Wing. Piano is taught by Mrs. Heaton, and all three teach music appreciation. Over two hundred students from Mrs. Provan's department and fifty-five from Mr. Wing's took part in the Christmas program. Concerts were given for Emerson and Brentwood schools by Mr. Wing's group. This year, too, a soloist and a brass quartet represented University High in the Southern California Music Festival held at U. S. C. Combining with the West Los Angeles Community Orchestra, the University orchestra presented a fine concert Friday, June 1. As always, the music department played an important part in both the Cossack and Hawaiian graduation exercises.

In summarizing the results of University's varsity football squads during the past three years, one would find that the Wilcox-coached elevens have done fairly well in placing a man on the All-City squad in both '42 and '43 and by holding first, second, and third in league standings in the three years. Placing John Simons on the All-City eleven, the '42 aggregation fared through seven out of eight league games to grab Co-Championship honors with the Venice Condoliers. Their only loss was at the hands of the Venetians in an early season tilt; they came back to nip the Oarsmen 13-12 in the season's finale. In '43 the local outfit roared through five games with no losses. However, when they met their arch-rivals, the vaunted L. A. Romans ran roughshod over the locals 25-6 to wind the reservationists up in second place. Incidentally, the Warriors did exceptionally well, for they went into every skirmish outweighed from 10 to 15 pounds per man. Placing Bob Leonard and Bob Hammond on the All-Western squad, they achieved City recognition with Hammond on the first string as blocking back. Coach Tom Wilcox was very disappointed in his '44 outfit. The local squad, having possibilities for rounding into the greatest Warrior eleven and the most outstanding in the Western League circuit, dropped their second game to a high-spirited, but not superior, Dorsey team, 13-6.

1944 BEE FOOTBALL SQUAD

The following week they faced the touted L. A. Romans. This resulted in one more easy victory for the La Brucherie-coached lads. After this slaughter the Warriors bounced back to defeat Hollywood 25-6 and Venice 31-6. Then came the real heart-breaker. An underdog Fairfax Colonial team came through to halt the Warriors in a 6-6 deadlock.

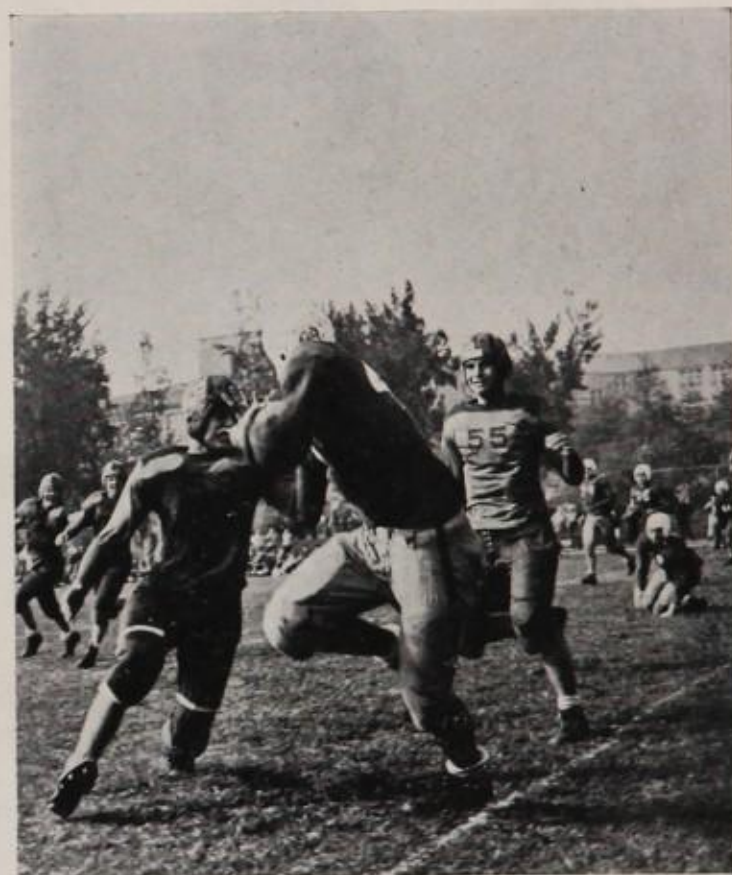

The University Bee eleven, like the Varsity, had a good deal of early-season bad luck, losing to Hamilton, Dorsey, Los Angeles, and Hollywood. Then the reservationists met the Venetians, who gained an early 19-13 half-time score. The local Bees rallied, however, to lick the Condoliers 25-19. In the season's final game, the lightweight eleven came through in a real thriller, defeating the Fairfax Colonials 14-13.

Sparked by Captain Jack Stone, sensational pivot man, and Glen Abney, stellar guard, University's 1945 basketball quintet was a polished, high-scoring aggregation as they blazed through eleven out of twelve league frays easily to annex the Western League gonfalon. The high-flying Warrior hoopmen dropped only one skirmish to the vaunted L.A. Romans. Playing a freeze-ball game, for the sole purpose of keeping the score down, the Roman five sorely outwitted the amazed local squad as they kept possession of the ball during the majority of the game to eke out a 24-23 win over the spirit-lacking Redskins. Benny Lewis, sensational sophomore monogrammer in '42, achieved All-League honors in '43 and '44 with a first string All-City berth. Also in '44, Jack Stone, the gigantic bulwark of the '45 squad, held the honor of being the first tenth grader to win a first-string All-League berth. He followed this up by manning the same Western League pivot post for three successive years. Stone, who also received All-City honors in '44 and '45—first-string in '45—was truly the greatest natural athlete ever to attend University and will always be remembered for his remarkable basketball career. Along with Stone on the '45 Warrior powerhouse was Glen Abney, towering southpaw hook-shot artist. Abney merited a third-string All-City berth as guard, along with his All-League honors. Bob Keller, spark-plug forward, Bob Richards, defensive mainstay, and lanky, deadeye Dick Bowen completed the first string. The Western League Champs were backed by host of able substitutes: Bruce Christensen, Tom Horton, Rodney Hatch, Fred Beck, Jerry O'Neal, Chuck Colwell, Bob Wolfe, and capable manager Dave Blanchard. Winning the first Basketball Championship, the stellar local squad set a high mark for future University melonmen to aim at by setting a record for the number of Western League wins in taking the championship.

STUMPUS DOWN TO EARTH

For three years, University's baseball teams have been forced to take a back seat by the stellar track teams. The 1943 nine boasted an All-City keystone-sacker in Tommy Peters, and one of the leading pitchers and outfielders in Art Smith. In the following year, sparked by another ace pitcher, Norbert Smith, but hampered by an inability to bash counters across the platter, the varsity nine finished in fourth place. For his outstanding hurling, Norbert Smith was given a berth on the All-City team. The 1945 edition of Coach Marvin's squad has not, at press time, played a league game. Again pitching is the strong point of the team. Chick Stewart and Sherwin Schwartz are two of the best southpaws in high school competition. The infield consists of Bob Richards, two-year letterman, on first; Don Stewart, sturdy tenth-grade brother of the pitcher, at the keystone sack; Bill Stumpus, seasoned shortstop, playing his third year of varsity ball; and George Heap, one-year letterman, at third. With the exception of Stewart, this infield is intact from the 1944 team. The outfield is the spot where the weakness could be shown, as only Don Morrison returns, but a host of aspirants up from the Junior Varsity are fighting for the spots. Merv Adelson and Ziggy Zieder, catchers, round out the squad.

1945 J.V. HORSEHIDERS

Junior varsity baseball was abandoned in 1943, but Coach Joe Hesslein again fielded a J.V. team in 1944. The season witnessed poor fielding, weak clutch hitting behind average pitching. The team won only one game and finished at the bottom of the Western League. The 1945 Junior Varsity team, before press time, defeated Beverly Hills and St. Monica's in practice frays and anticipates a prosperous campaign.

FRUITS OF VICTORY

Striving to live up to the standards of previous University track teams, 1945 Spikesters have a hard task before them in setting out to win their fourth consecutive Western League Championship and their second straight City Championship. Best in the Western League, the '43 and '42 track aggregations placed second and third respectively in the All-City Finals. Breaking up the seven-year domination of Los Angeles track by the Jefferson Democrats, "King Pins" of the Southern League, University's 1944 tracksters had the honor of placing their name among those of two other schools on the coveted City Cup. Los Angeles is the only other school besides Jefferson to win a City Track Championship. Several records were either broken or tied during the '44 campaign. Craig Dixon, second in City high sticks and fifth in the lows, tied the high hurdle record of 15s. flat; while Fred Beck, third in City mile, chopped almost five seconds off Barrena's mile record to lower it to 4:34.5. Jim Walker, third in City half, raced to a 1:59.8 880 to establish a new record. Dick Burzell, the only track athlete besides Mel Patton to take a first place in the City Meet, vaulted 12' 9 1/8" to raise the record a full two inches; while Dover again bettered his high jump record to 6' 1". Earl Miller's broad jump of 21' 9 1/2" completed the record breakers. One of the greatest disappointments during the '44 season was the upset of the Warrior relay team, which stood far above all others, because of a collision with a Manual Arts sprinter; the relay cup was forfeited in a similar fashion in '43 when Mel Patton came from behind to take a third for the locals. Fremont won both times.

Bee tracksters have followed their big brothers, the varsity, in many ways the last two years. Although they dropped two dual meets to Dorsey, the Warrior mid-gets came back twice in the Western League Finals to lick the Dons by good margins; they placed second in their respective events in the City Meet — Johnson, 1320 Moremen, 660. Salvador Castaneda, 1320 and pole vault; Bruce Greenland, hurdles; Pete Escobar, sprints; Van Johns, hurdles, Fred Hawkins, hurdles; Bob Partin, broad jump; and Jeff Fulton, 660, were also standouts on the Bee squad. WESTERN LEAGUE FINALS, 1944—University, 62; L. A., 34; Hamilton, 28; Venice, 20; Dorsey, 16; Hollywood, 16; Fairfax, 4. ALL-CITY FINALS, 1944—University, 24; Jefferson, 22 1/2; Fremont, 17; L. The Girls' Athletic Association this year continues its program of developing good sportsmanship and leadership, strong bodies and healthy minds in girls. Points given for participation in speedball, basketball, hockey, and baseball earn a coveted letter "U". A lettergirls' club comprises fifty girls who have received this award. For every 250 additional points above the 500 required for a letter, a star is added. Inter-grade competition in the semesterly Play Day takes the place of inter-school meets which have been called off on account of wartime conditions. Divided into tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade groups under the supervision of Miss Costello, Miss Love, and Miss Seminario in order respectively, the entire organization is sponsored by Miss Costello this semester. Crowning the semester's activities is the semi-annual banquet whose theme last semester was the colorful Gay Nineties. Fall Cabinet officers were: Nancy Perrin, president; Nellie Lappas, vice-president; Connie Douce, secretary; Milre Lisso, treasurer; Gwen Lewis, Song Leader; Jean Cholcher, twelfth grade representative; Jeanne Rogers, eleventh grade representative; Elizabeth Epling, tenth grade representative. reserve training

The R.O.T.C. unit at University High school has expanded with the growth of American participation in the war. The annual inspection, held May 10, this year, is the event toward which all the activities are pointed during the entire year. The purpose of the inspection, and of the complete training, is to strive for excellence in field exercises such as drill, manual of arms, and physical training; to develop the abilities of cadets to lead, give commands, and take orders; to inspire confidence in boys under the cadet's command by setting an example of excellence in leadership, appearance, and willingness to cooperate; to think with speed and accuracy. Despite the fact that a change in commanders has become a frequent occurrence in the past three years, the unit has had great success as an honor group. In the first part of the spring semester, Major James R. Boyle, who commanded the unit for more than a year, was retired. During this time a rifle team consisting of Edgar Wellbaum, Bruce Gaston, Scott Stoddard, Russell Ellis, Fred Eastman, Tom Bess, and James Ball received the Blue Devil Competition Trophy for which all Los Angeles high schools compete. The preceding year University also won the trophy. Last semester in an all-city R.O.T.C. rifle match, University's team placed a very close fourth with Scott Stoddard recording the highest individual score of the fifty-five participants. Last semester's activities also initiated inter-company sports competition in football, baseball, and track. The new commander succeeding Major Boyle is Major George Brittingham, who has recently returned from overseas duty. Throughout these many changes Sgt. Bernard Kisner, who came in the autumn of 1943, has remained as assistant. The unit consists of three companies which are commanded by student officers. Last semester Lt. Col. Edgar Wellbaum was the student officer in charge. The student officers, commanded by Major Mars Joslyn, for this semester, are: Capt. Peter Van Rosendael, adjutant; Capt. Larry Littrell, band; Capt. Herbert Millington, "B" Co.; Capt. Edgar Poe, "A" Co.; 1st Lt. William Ramsey, plans and training; 1st Lt. Wyeth Staples, Band; 1st Lt. Robert Rhein, "A" Co.; 1st Lt. Daniel Wines, "B" Co.; 2nd Lt. Tom Mason, Personnel Officer; 2nd Lt. Ted Lantheume, athletics officer; 2nd Lt. Robert Johnson, "A" Co.; 2nd Lt. Robert Brewer, "B" Co. The band, instructed by Mr. Wing, is a regular part of the unit. From the ranks of the R.O. T.C. many boys have entered the service.

A GALLANT WARRIOR

Last Thursday afternoon, an historic American family, a grief-stricken nation, and a stunned world lost one of its greatest and most beloved champions of freedom and justice, in the tragic and sudden death of Franklin Delano Roosevelt. At a time like this, however, when the entire nation and world is in mourning, words can hardly suffice to express the deep emotional feeling of those who knew him and of those who only heard of him. These latter must include more than half the peoples of the world, for the name of Roosevelt is probably known by more persons on earth than that of any other figure in history.

At this early date, it is still too soon for the nation—indeed, the entire world—to realize how great a loss was the passing of its beloved leader and president. In any event, he has become immortal and will be remembered for all time. Both the San Francisco Conference, which he had such a large part in shaping, and the now-imminent victories in Europe and the Pacific will become lasting monuments to his tireless efforts in building an endurable peace.

Franklin D. Roosevelt gave his life for his country; he died in the struggle for ultimate Victory and Peace. It can truly be said of him that he, too, was a warrior, a Gallant Warrior, ever fighting and striving for the progress of humanity.

BEN DANIELS, April 15, 1945.

The brief time allowed the staff to compile this list of honored names, and to collect what pictures we might, has made it impossible to secure all of them. Whether his picture appears or not, or even if his name be inadvertently omitted from this roll, every man who has made the supreme sacrifice for his country is represented here. His memory is enshrined in the heart of his compatriots forever.

peoples, unite!

When, someday, Cossacks and Hawaiians, Serbs and Croats, Slavs, Armenians and Turks,
From the width and breadth of the earth
And from its length,
Will together band in greater strength,
Than they before have done, Men shall again walk free, out of the shadows—into the sun.

The peoples of the earth uniting, will force down their common foe:
The Swastika will be swept away
in the blood it has caused to flow;
The Eagle once more in triumph shall rise—
And stars, not bursting bombs, shall lighten war-darkened skies.
And peace, not war, shall spread over all the land;
And Brotherhood shall lead the hand of man . . .

Re-lighting the Torch of Liberty—
Extending the Light of Freedom.

Julian,
you aren't
really as bad
as they say
you are. I fear to be in one of those places where you are fearful.

Julian -
I really think you're swell even if we do fight. Best
luck - Winn Woodward.
always!

Lots of luck to

dear friend
 you are really one of the greatest fellows I have ever known although sometimes I could have gladly wing your neck. We have been friends now since the good old training school days, and I hope will still have the good time together all the rest of our lives. I sincerely wish you all the success and happiness in the world because you will deserve every bit of it.
 Be good // always,
 Corlynn

The very best of luck always.
